

THE TRIBUNE

THURSDAY MORNING, MAY 12, 1842.

EL BENJ. DOWNEY is an authorized Agent to receive subscriptions and payments for THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE and AMERICAN LABOUR throughout the New-England States.

The Proceedings of the National Convention for the Protection of American Interests convened in the City of New-York, April 5, 1842, for sale at this Office. Price 25 cents.

The SPEECHES of Hon. THOMAS MARSHALL on Abstinent and Intemperance and Fashionable Drinking, delivered at the Broadway Tabernacle on the evenings of May 4 and 7, reported for the New-York Tribune, and published in a Pamphlet, for sale at this office, Price 6 cents.

MR. CLAY'S SPEECH—A few copies of THE Weekly Tribune containing Mr. Clay's last Speech on his Resolutions in the Senate of the United States, are still on hand and for sale at this office. Price 6 cents.

For a full and interesting summary of the Intelligence received from the Madians and their Missionaries, see Last Page.

We have omitted to state that our City Comptroller on Saturday last reported the aggregate City Debt at $13,434,962, less $693,522 of stocks held by the Water Commissioners; leaving the actual debt, $12,756,440; balanced in the Treasury, $109,334 64. We may remark, causally, that the general anxiety of our citizens for a thorough probing of the Comptroller's accounts, as well as those of Lloyd, Bell and others with the City Treasury, has been rather increased than diminished by the events of the past week, and the manifest determination of the Office-Holders to hold over and hold on, by any means.

A Correspondent wishes us to ask the Journal of Commerce how, if our Exports have in very truth very nearly equalled our Imports since the descending Tariff was imposed, our Foreign indebtedness has swelled in the same time some One Hundred and Fifty or Two Hundred Millions of Dollars. The Journal does not answer our questions, so we put this to any Free Trader. At the rate indicated by the balance of indebtedness, we have certainly been doing a very poor business in Foreign Trade, and it is high time we had a change.

Correspondence of the Tribune.

PROVIDENCE, May 10, 1842.
Mr. SAYLES, Speaker of the House of Representatives under the "People's Constitution," who was arrested yesterday, but succeeded to escape through the mismanagement of the officer, has gone to Washington. He left this morning at 3 o'clock by the Norwich Railroad. Mr. BROWN, one of the most prominent members of the same General Assembly from Gloucester, has left the State. Mr. YEAW, member of the same from Scituate, has resigned. HEZERIAK WILLARD, Senator from this city under the "People's Constitution," was this day arrested on a charge of treason. He was examined before Judge Burges of the Court of Common Pleas and committed, the magistrate not having power under the statute to admit him to bail. Judge Staples of the Supreme Court is in town and has power to admit him to bail, and Mr. Willard will have no difficulty in procuring it, unless, like Mr. Arnold, he proposes to be made a martyr of. An attempt was made to arrest him as he was placed in the carriage, but it was not successful. The crowd around the carriage was very large and very much excited, but I should judge a decided majority of them to be friends of the law. No attempt was made upon the jail last night, and I anticipate none to-night.

CANONICS.—P. S.—P. M. Mr. Willard has been before Judge Staples, and not being ready to give bail, has of his own accord gone to jail.

Extract of a Letter from Mexico, April 5, 1842.

"The continuance of the present dynasty in Mexico I think is assured until the meeting of the Congress in June next; for the concocting of a new Constitution. All the elections throughout the Republic have gone against Santa Ana's party; and the consequence will be a dreadful strife between the Executive and this body. The President has the army, and the Congress the people on their side, and it is difficult to foresee the issue; though many of the popular leaders of the Federal party (i.e. the party in favor of the Constitution of 1834, which resembles our own) imagine that a total anarchy will ensue, resulting finally in the success of an entire popular government, as opposed to a strong central one."

It will be seen from the date that the above was written before our late Charter Election. Of course, Santa Ana sees his way perfectly clear by this time. If beaten in the Elections, he has only to instruct some of his supple tools who preside officers to mystify or withhold their returns, and then, profiting by his own wrong and the brilliant example of Morris, Shaler & Co., he can swear there is no election and hold over. In cases of doubt pocket the stakes—that's according to Hoyle. And the foolish gamblers obey it implicitly. If Santa Ana gives up merely because he is beaten, he will be laughed at by every constable in our City. Has he no Evening Post to patch up its result of careful and patient investigation?

DEPARTURE of BISHOP SOULE.—At the Preachers' meeting, held at the Methodist Book Room, on Saturday morning last, the following resolution was unanimously adopted:

"BISHOP SOULE, having been appointed by the last General Conference of the M. E. Church, a delegate to the Wesleyan Methodist Connection, and being about to embark for Liverpool."

Therefore Resolved, That the Presiding Elder of the New-York district, the Preachers situated in the City and District of New-York, the Clergy, and the Secretary of the Missionary Society, accompany Bishop Soule to the Narrows, on Friday, 12th instant; and that the other Bishops and Preachers, who may be in the city at the time, be invited to accompany us.

RAILROAD DISTURBANCE.—The American contains the following notice of the injury done to the railroad cars on their return from the Races on Tuesday. The difficulty grew out of the very culpable conduct of the agents in selling tickets to several thousand persons more than their cars could accommodate:

The cars, immediately after the races were over, loaded to such an extent that the revolution of the wheels was entirely prevented, and a portion of the cars were left at the course. During the absence of the first train down, the riot took place at the course, and four of the cars were entirely destroyed and thrown off the track. The track in the woods was upset, and plank and stones placed upon the track along the road. The trains ran as far as the obstructions upon the road would permit, until 10 o'clock.

The Whigs of OLD DUTCHESS will hold a Mass Convention on Thursday the 19th to take decided ground in favor of the Protection of American Industry. We hope to meet the strength of the County there.

Mrs. Nancy White committed suicide at Marion, Ia. by hanging herself on the 27th ult. while in a fit of temporary insanity. She attempted not long previous to drown herself and her two children in a well.

ADVISER to STRANGERS.—Let not a strange leave the city without visiting the American Museum. It offers the best attractions in New-York. Read the advertisement.

Religious Anniversaries.

AMERICAN TRACT SOCIETY.—This benevolent Society held its Seventeenth Anniversary at the Tabernacle yesterday morning, at 10 o'clock. A large great building was crowded to its utmost extent. Wm. B. CHROATE, Esq., presided, and the exercises were commenced with prayer by the Rev. Dr. SPRING. A letter was read from S. N. S. WILDER, Esq., declining a re-election to the Presidency, mainly on account of his pecuniary embarrassments. The Treasurer's Report was presented by MOSES ALLEN, Esq. The receipts for the year are as follows:

Donations for foreign distribution.....	$1,546.99
for general purposes.....	3,004.04
Receipts for sales.....	36,214.11
Total.....	$31,765.14

The Society has sent abroad only $15,000 distributed as follows:

The circulation exceeds that of the last year by 13,647,130 pages, and includes 2,736 sets of the Evangelical Family Library of 15 volumes; 524 of the Christian Library of 45 volumes; upwards of 6,000 each of several separate volumes; 91,000 of the Christian Almanac for the United States; and of some four page tracts from 100,000 to 150,000 copies each. Total circulated in seventeen years 1,220,000,921 pages. 102,000 volumes have been circulated during the year, including 2736 sets of the Evangelical Family Library. By the voluntary co-operation of at least 20,000 christians, 1,000,000 volumes all have been circulated among perhaps 300,000 families, embracing not far from 4,000,000 souls.

Excellent addresses were delivered by Rev. HENRY HERMAGE, Rev. D. MILNE, and Rev. JUSTIN PERKINS. One of the most interesting portions of the exercises was an address in Syriac by Rev. Yohanna, Bishop of the Nestorian Church.

AMERICAN HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETY.—The Sixteenth Anniversary of this Society was held yesterday evening at the Broadway Tabernacle. HENRY DOWNEY, Esq. of Geneva, presided. After praye by the Rev. Dr. COOMAN of Rochester, JOSEPH CORNING, Esq., Treasurer of the Society, presented his Report. It presents the following aggregates:

Balance May 1, 1841.....	$2,427.79
Adv't from Agencies, &c.	76,267.65
Postage, &c.	10,510
Leagues.....	1,347
Other donations.....	2,436.17
Postage, &c.	2,045.17
Balance, May 1, 1842.....	$95,361.43

Other expenses.....

Salaries of Officers.....

Balance in the Treasury.....

The receipts are $7,050 greater than those of last year. The liabilities incurred by the Society during the year to commissioners is $96,399.36, which, with the amount due at the beginning of the year, makes the whole amount of liabilities $107,055.93. The number of congregations is 927—125 more than last year: the amount of labor performed 594 years—93 more than last year, and 30 more than any preceding year. The number of pupils under the missionaries is 64,300. The number of converts reported is 3,018: the number added to the church, 5,514. The Executive Report was presented by Rev. Milton Badger. The prospects of the Society are in every way highly encouraging. Excellent addresses were delivered by Rev. E. D. ALLES of Albany, Rev. H. D. LUDLOW of Poughkeepsie, Rev. T. S. CLARKE of Stockbridge, Mass., and Rev. JOHN PARKER of Philadelphia. Several select pieces of music were performed in fine style by the choir. The meeting was dismissed by benediction from Rev. Dr. COX.

FEMALE MORAL REFORM SOCIETY.—The Eighth Anniversary of this Society was held last evening at the Heater-street church. The Annual Report of the Board states the number of copies of the Journal which have been issued during the last year, at 15,500: the number of pages of tracts published, at 47,400—a large number of which were gratuitous; 40,000 petitions have been forwarded to the Legislature during the year; three missionaries have been employed, who have visited 6,570 families. Of the Advocate, 47,652 copies have been distributed: 7,000 signatures obtained to the Temperance pledge, and 160 children have been brought into Sabbath schools. A Bethel Missionary has been steadily employed, who has visited 3,820 vessels—distributed 12,650 Advocates, 534 Directories, and 194,550 pages of tracts. From investigations carefully made, it is ascertained that in the Eighth Ward alone, there are 97 dwellings occupied by openly vicious females—whose number in that Ward is estimated at 697. Taking this as a basis, it is believed that our city contains 1,640 houses of ill-fame, and 11,540 open prostitutes. Horrible as is this picture, it is the result of careful and patient investigation.

THE NEW YORK COLONIZATION SOCIETY held their 10th annual meeting last evening at the Middle Dutch Church—ANSON G. PHELTS, Esq., in the Chair. The proceedings were opened with a hymn written for the occasion by Mrs. STODDERTON, after which Rev. Mr. OGDEN, of Whitesboro, offered a prayer. MOSES ALLEN, Esq., Treasurer, read the financial report for the past year, which showed the following aggregates:

Receipts.....	$8,335.82
Expenses.....	8,306.56

Balance due Treasurer.....

CENTRAL AMERICA.—We have received advices from Guatimalia to the 2d of April, via Honduras, and by these we are informed that Carrera had marched to St. Salvador with 2000 men—that he had an interview with Malepin, the military commander there, and that he had returned to Guatimalia dissatisfied, and shortly afterward disbanded his troops. Signor Lopez, an influential member of the Assembly, has retired from office. No news had been received of Morazan's movements up to the date of our correspondent's letter.

C. M. S. Smith, former associate editor of the Natchez Courier, accidentally shot himself during a hunting excursion on the evening of the 24th ult.

The accident occurred on the bank of the bayou Cocodrie, a short distance from Natchez.

Mr. S. lingered only three hours. On hearing of his death, Mr. C. G. Forshey, Mr. William Forshey, and two other gentlemen, named Tibbles, started in a skiff for the scene of his death. A violent storm arose and prostrated a tree, which, in its fall, struck the boat, killed one of the Messrs. Tibbles instantly, wounded the other in the loin, and severely bruised William Forshey, one of the branches falling across his thighs. The Mr. Tibbles, who was wounded, will, it is thought, recover, though his wound is considered dangerous.
